

2026

GLOBAL CENTER ON COOPERATIVE SECURITY

GLOBAL CENTER ANNUAL FUNDRAISER

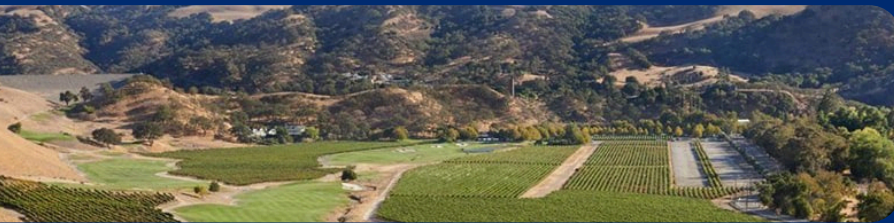

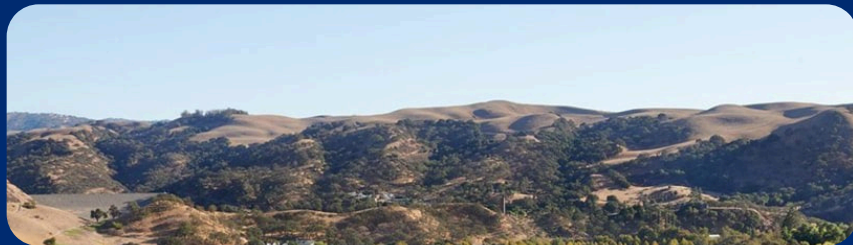

Wente Family Vinyards
5050 Arroyo Road
Livermore, CA 94550

We look forward to welcoming you to the Global Center on Cooperative Security's 2026 Annual Fundraiser at Wente Vineyards on Sunday, November 1, from 12:00–4:30 p.m. in Livermore, California.

TICKETS

Tickets, as well as individual and corporate sponsorship packages, are available via the event website.

GETTING THERE

Wente Vineyards is located at 5050 Arroyo Road, Livermore, CA 94550.

TASTINGS, TOURS, & GOLF

Guests interested in golfing at Wente's 18-hole championship course, special wine tastings, or tours separately from the event can book through Wente's website.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Rooms are available at a group rate at the Aloft Dublin-Pleasanton. Reserve your room by October 19, subject to availability.

12:00-
4:30

Enjoy an afternoon of wine, food, and conversation while supporting the Global Center's work to advance a more just and secure world. Explore the vineyard grounds, connect with Global Center staff, board members, and supporters, and learn more about the organization's mission and work. Sample Wente wines and enjoy hors d'oeuvres and other fare in Wente's Event Space and Terrace Lawn. Additional tastings, tours, and golf tee times may be reserved separately through Wente's website.

1:00

Learn about the Global Center's work to promote human rights-centered responses to international justice and security challenges from members of the Global Center's program team and board, including:

Chania Lackey, Director of Financial Integrity

Chania oversees the Global Center's technical assistance programs aimed at bolstering anti-money laundering, countering the financing of terrorism, and addressing other financial crimes around the world. Prior to joining the Global Center, she held senior roles in the private and public sectors, leading regulatory and compliance programs within legal, financial, and technology firms across Latin America, Southeast Asia, the United States, and Africa. In her capacity as a lawyer, she has worked with law firms in New York and Nairobi, and at the Republic of Kenya's Attorney General's Office. Chania holds an AML/CFT specialist accreditation from the Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists (ACAMs), as well as an LL.M. in Commercial Law with a specialization in International Financial Law, Regulation, and Policy, and an LL.B. (Honors), both from the University of Bristol, United Kingdom. She also serves on the board of directors of Friends of Kenya Community Development Fund (Friends of KCDF – US).

David Dews, Director of Security Practice

David oversees the Global Center's programs focused on the detention, rehabilitation, and reintegration of violent extremist offenders and countering violent extremism, as well as its broader criminal justice portfolio. Previously, David was contracted to work in an intelligence capacity to help safeguard charities in the United Kingdom against terrorism and extremism. He also has a background in conflict prevention, including developing training on peacebuilding processes at the Swedish Armed Forces International Centre. David holds a bachelors degree in Social Policy and Politics from the University of Edinburgh and a masters in Peace and Conflict Studies from Uppsala University, Sweden.

Acknowledging Our Generous Supporters

Presenting Corporate Sponsors

Supporting Corporate Sponsors

Benefactors

David and Amy McGowan Family Trust

Sara Zeiger

